FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Serenbe Playhouse Announces

Season 9: VOYAGE

After a record-breaking rebellious season, Serenbe Playhouse takes to the water and sails on with a season of reinvented modern and classical works

Atlanta (November 2017) – Serenbe Playhouse, is excited to announce Season 9: Voyage... after the rebellion, we sail on! Opening the season is Disney’s THE LITTLE MERMAID where recycled ocean trash becomes Ariel’s grotto. Next up is a world premiere adaptation of PETER PAN focusing on his swashbuckling pirate adventures! Sailing into the much-anticipated summer musical slot is TITANIC: The Musical in which a ship will be resurrected and submerged nightly. Closing out the summer and heading into the fall will be a waterfront fresh take on Chekhov’s THE SEAGULL. Seasonal favorites THE SLEEPY HOLLOW EXPERIENCE and THE SNOW QUEEN will round out the calendar year. Season tickets and single tickets will be on sale soon online at www.serenbeplayhouse.com (any time); and by phone at 770-463-1110. The Playhouse administrative offices are located at 9110 Selborne Lane, Suite 210, Chattahoochee Hills GA, 30268.

While planning season nine, I felt a gravitational pull toward the water. I tried to fight it for months but ultimately embraced it. Water gives us life and here we are after our most rebellious season returning to it. Every show will be set on or in the water in lakes and rivers in Serenbe. From following the iconic Disney characters into Ariel’s grotto made of recycled ocean trash, to jumping aboard a pirate ship with Peter Pan, to lounging by the shore with a troubled seagull, this season will be our most daring and immersive to date... and yes, we will be creating a Titanic and sinking it nightly while honoring the lives and stories that made this moment in history so iconic. Join us as we sail on in 2018! –Brian Clowdus, Founder & Executive/Artistic Director

ABOUT SERENBE PLAYHOUSE:
Serenbe Playhouse is a professional theatre committed to producing site-specific performances and programs that connect art, nature, and community. Serenbe Playhouse believes that theatre as an art form has the unique power to illuminate the human experience. In pursuit of that vision, we produce artistically rich site-specific performances and programming that reduce the barriers between artists and audiences by immersing patrons in an environment that amplifies the beauty of nature, and provides opportunities for engagement, conversation, and collaboration. We use theatre as an artistic educational tool for both artists and audiences. We are a pioneer in modeling Green Theatre Practices by producing plays with a commitment to social responsibility and environmental stewardship. Serenbe Playhouse was founded in 2009 under the executive and artistic direction of Brian Clowdus, an accomplished actor, educator, director and producer. Established under the umbrella of their parent organization, The Serenbe Institute for Art Culture & the Environment, a 501(c)3 non-profit organization, Serenbe Playhouse operates with the support of a diverse working board of directors and community volunteers.

Recipient, American Theatre Wing’s 2015 National Theatre Company Grant.
